1968

Annual Index

Each article appearing in Volume 19 of the Journal is indexed below according to title and author (or authors). In addition, all of the articles have been listed under appropriate subject headings.

A

Abner, Willoughby—A Mediator Views the Current Scene. July, p. 398.

Academic Administration—An Industrial Relations View. Aug., p. 475.

Achievements of an Industry-Operated Job Corps Center. Aug., p. 463.

Acquisition—see National Labor Relations Act of 1935.

Agriculture . . . Apr., p. 230.

AFDC Amendments of 1967, The: Their Impact on the Capacity for Self-Support and the Employability of AFDC Family Heads. Aug., p. 496.

Allen, T. C.—Achievements of an Industry-Operated Job Corps Center. Aug., p. 463.

Appropriate Bargaining Unit for Professional Nurses, The. Jan., p. 3.

Arbitration
- Labor obligations of the successor to a unionized business. Mar., p. 160.
- Minority group employees, discipline and the arbitrator. Sept., p. 544.
- NLRB and arbitration: Is the Board's expanding jurisdiction justified? Oct., p. 640.
- Preventative arbitration—a path to labor peace and prosperity. Sept., p. 539.
- State subsidized arbitration: the Massachusetts experience. Oct., p. 628.

Authorization cards
- Certification year rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry extension. June, p. 335.
- Joy Silk rule—the courts weave a new fabric. Oct., p. 603.
- Union authorization cards and the duty to bargain. Apr., p. 201.

Automation—see Technological change.

B

Bargaining in the Federal Sector. Sept., p. 569.

Bennett, Barry J.—Pension Plans and Changes in Management. Dec., p. 761.

Bloch, Richard I.—The NLRB and Arbitration: Is the Board's Expanding Jurisdiction Justified? Oct., p. 640.

Boycott . . . May, p. 259.

Bretten, G. R.—Industrial Training in Britain. June, p. 358.

Brinker, Paul A. and Norma Pope—Recent Developments with the Guaranteed Annual Wage: The Ford Settlement. Sept., p. 555.

Brown, J. Douglas—Academic Administration—An Industrial Relations View. Aug., p. 475.

C

Case of Rookes v. Barnard, The. Jan., p. 50.

Certification
- Certification year rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry extension. June, p. 335; Dec., p. 743.
- Joy Silk rule—the courts weave a new fabric. Oct., p. 603.

Certification Year Rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry Extension. June, p. 335.

Civil Rights Act of 1964
- Conciliation of labor disputes and civil rights disputes. Sept., p. 563.
- Impact of the Civil Rights Act on employment policies and programs. June, p. 323.
- Job search among Negroes. Aug., p. 482.

Coalition bargaining
- Coordinated bargaining: a snare—and a delusion. Aug., p. 518.
- Multi-union bargaining: a legal analysis. Dec., p. 731.

Collective bargaining
- Appropriate bargaining unit for professional nurses. Jan., p. 3.
- Bargaining in the federal sector. Sept., p. 569.
- Collective bargaining checklist. Feb., p. 66.
- Collective bargaining in universities and colleges. Dec., p. 778.
- Duty to bargain as applied to management decisions. Mar., p. 143.
- Impact of automation on collective bargaining agreements. Feb., p. 112.
- Labor and management at arms. Jan., p. 38.
- Management's reserved rights and the NLRB—an employer's view. Nov., p. 695.
- Managing the contract. July, p. 391.
- More on Mar-Jac. Dec., p. 743.

Collective bargaining—continued
Multi-union bargaining: a legal analysis. Dec., p. 731.
New frontiers in collective bargaining: public workers and citizen bosses. July, p. 387.
Past, present and future remedies under Section 8(a)(5) of the NLRA. Mar., p. 131.
Pension plans and changes in management. Dec., p. 761.
Preventative arbitration—a path to labor peace and prosperity. Sept., p. 539.
Question of the recognition of principal and other supervisory units in public education collective bargaining. May, p. 283.
Steelworker bargaining posture and the future of steel collective bargaining. June, p. 352.
Striking teachers, welfare, transit and sanitation workers. May, p. 273.
Teachers' strikes—a new militancy. May, p. 292.

Collective Bargaining Agreement Checklist, A. Feb., p. 67.

Collective Bargaining from Acquisition to Termination—the Law and Some Advice. July, p. 407.

Collective Bargaining in Universities and Colleges. Dec., p. 778.

Collective bargaining rights
Collective bargaining from acquisition to termination—the law and some advice. July, p. 407.
Individual rights in the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. Apr., p. 224.

Compensation . . . Dec., p. 761.

Concentrated Employment Program — see Job training.

Conciliation
Conciliation of labor disputes and civil rights disputes. Sept., p. 563.
Mediator views the current scene. July, p. 398.

Conciliation of Labor Disputes and Civil Rights Disputes—A Comparison and a Quandary. Sept., p. 563.

Coordinated bargaining
Mediator views the current scene. July, p. 398.
Union point of view. Aug., p. 512.

Coordinated Bargaining:
Economist's Point of View. Aug., p. 524.
Snare—and a Delusion (Employer Point of View). Aug., p. 518.
Union Point of View. Aug., p. 512.

Corning, R. V.—Minority Training and Employment. Aug., p. 453.

Court intervention . . . Nov., p. 667.

Craver, Charles B.—Bargaining in the Federal Sector. Sept., p. 569.

Cross, Leland B., Jr.—A Collective Bargaining Agreement Checklist. Feb., p. 67.

Current Developments in Farm Labor Law. Apr., p. 230.

D

Di Pasquale, A.—Labor and Management at Arms. Jan., p. 38.

Disputes
Conciliation of labor disputes and civil rights disputes. Sept., p. 563.
Managing the contract. July, p. 391.

Doty, Arthur M. — Effective Counseling and Training Approaches Fostered by Industry in Cooperation with a Government Agency: Plans for Progress. Aug., p. 456.

Duty to bargain—see National Labor Relations Act of 1935.

Duty to Bargain as Applied to Management Decisions, The. Mar., p. 143.

E

Economics
Public view of the contribution of the private sector. Aug., p. 469.
Recent developments with the guaranteed annual wage: the Ford settlement. Sept., p. 555.
Wage-price guideposts. Nov., p. 687.

Effective Counseling and Training Approaches Fostered by Industry in Cooperation with a Government Agency: Plans for Progress. Aug., p. 456.

Employers
Duty to bargain as applied to management decisions. Mar., p. 143.
Experience rating: a 30-year controversy. Jan., p. 28.
Managing the contract. July, p. 391.
Suggestions to management: the lockout. Feb., p. 80.

Employment policies
AFDC Amendments of 1967: their impact on the capacity for self-support and the employability of AFDC family heads. Aug., p. 496.
From poverty to employment. Aug., p. 508.
Impact of the Civil Rights Act on employment policies and programs. June, p. 323.
Job search among Negroes. Aug., p. 482.
Minority group employees, discipline and the arbitrator. Sept., p. 544.
Training and job creation. Aug., p. 488.

Employment problems—see Job training.

English labor—see Foreign labor.

Engle, Earl L.—Coordinated Bargaining: A Snare—and a Delusion (An Employer Point of View). Aug., p. 518.

Erenburg, Mark — From Poverty to Employment. Aug., p. 508.

Executive Order 10988
Bargaining in the federal sector. Sept., p. 569.
Impact of automation on labor-management relations in government. Nov., p. 681.

Experience Rating: A 30-Year Controversy. Jan., p. 28.

F

Fact-finding . . . July, p. 387.

Fair Labor Standards Act of 1947 . . . Apr., p. 230.

Fanning, John H.—Individual Rights in the Negotiation and Administration of Collective Bargaining Agreements. Apr., p. 224.

Ferguson, Tracy H.—Collective Bargaining in Universities and Colleges. Dec., p. 778.

Foegen, J. H.—Labor in Textbooks: Adequate Coverage? June, p. 329.

Foreign labor

- Case of Rookes v. Barnard. Jan., p. 50.
- History of labor in modern Japan. Jan., p. 42.
- Industrial training in Britain. June, p. 358.
- Management rights and the Swedish collective bargaining agreements at the federation and plant levels. June, p. 364.

Freilicher, Frederic—More on Mar-Jac. Dec., p. 743.

From Poverty to Employment. Aug., p. 508.

G

Gordon, H. Stephan—Union Authorization Cards and the Duty to Bargain. Apr., p. 201.

Government contracts . . . Jan., p. 12.

Government employees

- Bargaining in the federal sector. Sept., p. 569.
- Impact of automation on labor-management relations in government. Nov., p. 681.
- Labor laws applicable to federal government contracts. Jan., p. 12.

Government intervention

- Labor and management at arms. Jan., p. 38.
- State picketing policies and the federal court: a state experience. May, p. 259.
- Union point of view. Aug., p. 512.
- Wage-price guideposts. Nov., p. 687.

Guaranteed annual wage . . . Sept., p. 555.

H

Hausman, Leonard J.—The AFDC Amendments of 1967: Their Impact on the Capacity for Self-Support and the Employability of AFDC Family Heads. Aug., p. 496.

Herman, Joseph and Walter P. Loomis, Jr.—Management's Reserved Rights and the NLRB—An Employer's View. Nov., p. 695.

Herzog, Donald R.—Labor Laws Applicable to Federal Government Contracts. Jan., p. 12.

Hildebrand, George H.—Coordinated Bargaining: An Economist's Point of View. Aug., p. 524.

Hiring rights . . . Apr., p. 195.

History of Labor in Modern Japan, A. Jan., p. 42.

I

Impact of Automation on Collective Bargaining Agreements, The. Feb., p. 112.

Impact of Automation on Labor-Management Relations in Government, The. Nov., p. 681.

Impact of the Civil Rights Act on Employment Policies and Programs, The. June, p. 323.

Individual Rights in the Negotiation and Administration of Collective Bargaining Agreements. Apr., p. 224.

Industrial Relations Research Association Proceedings of the 1968 Spring Meeting . . . Aug., p. 451.

Industrial Training in Britain. June, p. 358.

Industry job training—see Job training.

J

Japanese labor—see Foreign labor.

Job Search Among Negroes. Aug., p. 482.

Job training

- Achievements of an industry-operated job corps center. Aug., p. 463.
- Effective counseling and training approaches fostered by industry in cooperation with a government agency: Plans for Progress. Aug., p. 456.
- Minority training and employment. Aug., p. 451.
- Public view of the contribution of the private sector. Aug., p. 469.
- Rewarding efforts of a private agency—OIC. Aug., p. 472.
- Training and job creation. Aug., p. 488.
- What we are doing on the retail front. Aug., p. 467.

Joint negotiations—see Coordinated bargaining.

Joint study approach . . . July, p. 398.

Joy Silk Rule, The—The Courts Weave a New Fabric. Oct., p. 603.

Jurisdiction

- NLRB and arbitration: is the Board's expanding jurisdiction justified? Oct., p. 640.
- State picketing policies and the federal court: a state experience. May, p. 259.

K

Kidder, Alice Handsaker—Job Search Among Negroes. Aug., p. 482.

Kovarsky, Irving—Union Discipline. Nov., p. 667.

Kruger, Daniel H.—The Appropriate Bargaining Unit for Professional Nurses. Jan., p. 3.

Krupman, William A.—The Joy Silk Rule—The Courts Weave a New Fabric. Oct., p. 603.

L

Labor and Management at Arms. Jan., p. 38.

Labor force . . . Apr., p. 241.

Labor in Textbooks: Adequate Coverage? June, p. 329.

Labor Laws Applicable to Federal Government Contracts. Jan., p. 12.

Labor-management education . . . June, p. 329.

Labor-management relations
- Case of Rookes v. Barnard. Jan., p. 50.
- Collective bargaining checklist. Feb., p. 66.
- Impact of automation on labor-management relations in government. Nov., p. 681.
- Labor obligations of the successor to a unionized business. Mar., p. 160.
- Management rights and the Swedish collective bargaining agreements at the federation and plant levels. June, p. 364.
- Managing the contract. July, p. 391.

Labor Management Relations Act of 1947
- Bargaining in the federal sector. Sept., p. 569.
- Management's reserved rights and the NLRB—an employer's view. Nov., p. 695.
- Union discipline. Nov., p. 667.

Labor Obligations of the Successor to a Unionized Business, The. Mar., p. 160.

Landrum-Griffin Act . . . Nov., p. 667.

Lasser, David—Coordinated Bargaining: A Union Point of View. Aug., p. 512.

Legislation
- AFDC Amendments of 1967: their impact on the capacity for self-support and the employability of AFDC family heads. Aug., p. 496.
- Current developments in farm labor law. Apr., p. 230.
- Labor laws applicable to federal government contracts. Jan., p. 12.

Lev, Edward R.—Suggestions to Management: The Lockout. Feb., p. 80.

Lockout
- Coordinated bargaining: a snare—and a delusion. Aug., p. 518.
- Suggestions to management: the lockout. Feb., p. 80.

Longstreth, Thacher—Rewarding Efforts of a Private Agency—OIC. Aug., p. 472.

Loomis, Walter P., Jr. and Joseph Herman—Management's Reserved Rights and the NLRB—An Employer's View. Nov., p. 695.

Lukaczer, Moses
- History of Labor in Modern Japan, A. Jan., p. 42.
- Reflections on Federal Manpower Projections. Apr., p. 241.
- Wage-Price Guideposts, The. Nov., p. 687.

Luthans, Fred—The Impact of Civil Rights Act on Employment Policies and Programs. June, p. 323.

M

Management Rights and the Swedish Collective Bargaining Agreements at the Federation and Plant Levels. June, p. 364.

Management's Reserved Rights and the NLRB—An Employer's View. Nov., p. 695.

Managing the Contract. July, p. 391.

Manpower
- Reflections on federal manpower projections. Apr., p. 241.
- Training and job creation. Aug., p. 488.

Mar-Jac Poultry case . . . June, p. 335; Dec., p. 743.

Markowitz, Steven—Training and Job Creation—A Case Study. Aug., p. 488.

McCulloch, Frank W.—Past, Present and Future Remedies Under Section 8(a)(5) of the NLRA. Mar., p. 131.

Mediation—see Conciliation.

Mediator Views the Current Scene, A. July, p. 398.

Millious, Joseph M.—Managing the Contract. July, p. 391.

Minority Group Employees, Discipline and the Arbitrator. Sept., p. 544.

Minority Training and Employment. Aug., p. 453.

Monson, Weldon P.—The Case of Rookes v. Barnard. Jan., p. 50.

Montana, Patrick J.—Striking Teachers, Welfare, Transit and Sanitation Workers. May, p. 273.

Moran, Robert D.—State Subsidized Arbitration—The Massachusetts Experience. Oct., p. 628.

More on Mar-Jac. Dec., p. 743.

Muir, J. Douglas—The Strike as a Professional Sanction: The Changing Attitude of the National Education Association. Oct., p. 615.

Multi-Union Bargaining: A Legal Analysis. Dec., p. 731.

Mustafa, Husain—The Impact of Automation on Labor Management Relations in Government. Nov., p. 681.

N

NLRB and Arbitration, The: Is the Board's Expanding Jurisdiction Justified? Oct., p. 640.

National Labor Relations Act of 1935
- Certification year rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry extension. June, p. 335; Dec., p. 743.
- Collective bargaining from acquisition to termination—the law and some advice. July, p. 407.
- Past, present and future remedies under Section 8(5)(a) of the NLRA. Mar., p. 131.
- Union authorization cards and the duty to bargain. Apr., p. 201.

National Labor Relations Board
Joy Silk rule—the courts weave a new fabric. Oct., p. 603.
Management's reserved rights and the NLRB —an employer's view. Nov., p. 695.
Union discipline. Nov., p. 667.

Neirynck, Robert W.—Teachers' Strikes — A New Militancy. May, p. 292.

New Frontier in Collective Bargaining, A: Public Workers and Citizen Bosses. July, p. 387.

Nurses . . . Jan., p. 3.

O

Office of Economic Opportunity—see Job training.

O'Neill, Brian J.—Collective Bargaining from Acquisition to Termination — the Law and Some Advice. July, p. 407.

Opportunities Industrialization Center—see Job training.

Orr, John A.—The Steelworker Bargaining Posture and the Future of Steel Collective Bargaining. June, p. 352.

P

Palomba, Neil A.—Experience Rating: A 30-Year Controversy. Jan., p. 28.

Past, Present and Future Remedies Under Section 8(a)(5) of the NLRA. Mar., p. 131.

Pension Plans and the Changes in Management. Dec., p. 761.

Pepe, Stephen P.—Certification Year Rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry Extension. June, p. 335.

Perline, Martin M. and Kurtis L. Tull—The Impact of Automation on Collective Bargaining Agreements. Feb., p. 112.

Peterson, Richard B.—Management Rights and the Swedish Collective Bargaining Agreements at the Federation and Plant Levels. June, p. 364.

Picketing . . . May, p. 259.

Plans for Progress—see Job training.

Platt, Elihu—The Duty to Bargain as Applied to Management Decisions. Mar., p. 143.

Pope, Norma and Paul A. Brinker—Recent Developments with the Guaranteed Annual Wage: The Ford Settlement. Sept., p. 555.

Preferential Hiring Rights of Economic Strikers. Apr., p. 195.

Preventative Arbitration—A Path to Perpetual Labor Peace and Prosperity. Sept., p. 539.

Public employees
New frontiers in collective bargaining: public workers and citizen bosses. July, p. 387.
Striking teachers, welfare, transit and sanitation workers. May, p. 273.
Teachers' strikes—a new militancy. May, p. 292.

Public View of the Contribution of the Private Sector, A. Aug., p. 469.

Q

Question of the Recognition of Principal and Other Supervisory Units in Public Education Collective Bargaining, The. May, p. 283.

R

Raskin, Abraham H.—A Public View of the Contribution of the Private Sector. Aug., p. 469.

Recent Developments with the Guaranteed Annual Wage: The Ford Settlement. Sept., p. 555.

Reflections on Federal Manpower Projections. Apr., p. 241.

Representation
Certification year rule and the Mar-Jac Poultry extension. June, p. 335.
Individual rights in the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. Apr., p. 224.
Question of the recognition of principal and other supervisory units in collective bargaining. May, p. 283.
Union discipline. Nov., p. 667.

Reserved rights—see Labor Management Relations Act of 1947.

Rewarding Efforts of a Private Agency—OIC. Aug., p. 472.

Robinson, James W.—Structural Characteristics of the Independent Union in America. July, p. 417.

Rowan, Eugene F.—What We Are Doing on the Retail Front. Aug., p. 467.

Rummel, Charles A.—Current Developments in Farm Labor Law. Apr., p. 230.

S

Sangerman, Harry—The Labor Obligations of the Successor to a Unionized Business. Mar., p. 160.

Scallon, Hugh J.—Preferential Hiring Rights of Economic Strikers. Apr., p. 195.

Schmidt, Charles T., Jr.—The Question of the Recognition of Principal and Other Supervisory Units in Public Education Collective Bargaining. May, p. 283.

Seligson, Harry—Minority Group Employees, Discipline and the Arbitrator. Sept., p. 544.

Shutkin, Joseph J.—Preventive Arbitration—A Path to Perpetual Labor Peace and Prosperity. Sept., p. 539.

State labor controls

Appropriate bargaining unit for professional nurses. Jan., p. 3.

Collective bargaining in universities and colleges. Dec., p. 778.

Current developments in farm labor law. Apr., p. 230.

Question of the recognition of Principal and other supervisory units in public education collective bargaining. May, p. 283.

State picketing policies and the federal court: a state experience. May, p. 259.

State subsidized arbitration: the Massachusetts experience. Oct., p. 628.

Striking teachers, welfare, transit and sanitation workers. May, p. 273.

Teachers' strikes—a new militancy. May, p. 292.

State Picketing Policies and the Federal Court: A State Experience. May, p. 259.

State Subsidized Arbitration—The Massachusetts Experience. Oct., p. 628.

Steelworker Bargaining Posture and the Future of Steel Collective Bargaining, The. June, p. 352.

Strike as a Professional Sanction, The: The Changing Attitude of the National Education Association. Oct., p. 615.

Strikes

Labor and management at arms. Jan., p. 38.

Preferential hiring rights of economic strikers. Apr., p. 195.

Strike as a professional sanction: the changing attitude of the National Education Association. Oct., p. 615.

Teachers' strikes—a new militancy. May, p. 292.

Striking Teachers, Welfare, Transit and Sanitation Workers. May, p. 273.

Structural Characteristics of the Independent Union in America. July, p. 417.

Suggestions to Management: The Lockout. Feb., p. 80.

T

Taylor, Benjamin J.—State Picketing Policies and the Federal Court: A State Experience. May, p. 259.

Teachers

Question of the recognition of principal and other supervisory units in public education collective bargaining. May, p. 283.

Strike as a professional sanction: the changing attitude of the National Education Association. Oct., p. 615.

Striking teachers, welfare, transit and sanitation workers. May, p. 273.

Teachers' strikes—a new militancy. May, p. 292.

Teachers' Strikes—A New Militancy. May, p. 292.

Technological change

Impact of automation on collective bargaining agreements. Feb., p. 112.

Impact of automation on labor-management relations in government. Nov., p. 681.

Reflections on federal manpower projections. Apr., p. 241.

Tinning, Paul P.—Conciliation of Labor Disputes and Civil Rights Disputes—A Comparison and a Quandary. Sept., p. 563.

Training and Job Creation — A Case Study. Aug., p. 488.

Tull, Kurtis L. and Martin M. Perline—The Impact of Automation on Collective Bargaining Agreements. Feb., p. 112.

U

Unemployment

Experience rating: a 30-year controversy. Jan., p. 28.

Job search among Negroes. Aug., p. 482.

Union Authorization Cards and the Duty to Bargain. Apr., p. 201.

Union Discipline. Nov., p. 667.

Unions

Collective bargaining in universities and colleges. Dec., p. 778.

Coordinated bargaining: a snare—and a delusion. Aug., p. 518.

Coordinated bargaining: an economist's point of view. Aug., p. 524.

Individual rights in the negotiation and administration of collective bargaining agreements. Apr., p. 224.

Joy Silk rule—the courts weave a new fabric. Oct., p. 603.

Steelworker bargaining posture and the future of steel collective bargaining. June, p. 352.

Structural characteristics of the independent union in America. July, p. 417.

University organization

Academic administration—an industrial relations view. Aug., p. 475.

Collective bargaining in universities and colleges. Dec., p. 778.

W

Wage-Price Guideposts, The. Nov., p. 687.

Wagner Act—see National Labor Relations Act of 1935.

Wagner, Lynn E.—Multi-Union Bargaining: A Legal Analysis. Dec., p. 731.

What We Are Doing on the Retail Front. Aug., p. 467.

Z

Zagoria, Sam—A New Frontier in Collective Bargaining: Public Workers and Citizen Bosses. July, p. 387.